22 Queen St, Gloucester

‘All I Need is Love .’

In need of some TLC, this three bedroom weatherboard and corrugated iron roofed home is in a perfect position to maximise the benefits of town living. The stunning views alone make this property worth a very close look.

Loaded with character and located on an iconic street in Gloucester, this home is positioned well on a sloping block and was built in 1933. Steeped in local history this home is waiting to transcend into the 21st century.

Opportunities to purchase a property with such spectacular views and just a short walk to town are a rare thing.
